

Tell us your story

Writing for Exchange – we welcome your views

The Exchange newsletter is produced by Macmillan Cancer Support as a forum for news, views and information for anyone involved with Macmillan Cancer Voices or cancer self help and support.

We are now gathering news and stories for the spring 2009 issue and would like to hear from you if you have a story or news item to contribute. Contributions can be about anything from the dance class that helps you relax to the projects your self help and support group are doing in your community. Anyone can contribute, either by writing a story or by telling us about an experience or project for us to write about.

If you would like to contribute, please complete and return this form by 15 April 2009 to:

Carol Gibbons, Macmillan Cancer Support, 89 Albert Embankment, London SE1 7UQ (Tel 020 7091 2007)

Or email cgibbons@macmillan.org.uk

About our Exchange newsletter

We're nearing then ever to

Exchange is currently produced three times a year: in spring, summer and autumn.

It is mailed to people across the UK who are involved in cancer self help and support and/or Cancer Voices activity.

We sometimes use articles published in Exchange (or excerpts from them) in other Macmillan media such as the Cancer Voices and self help section of our website (www.macmillan.org.uk) and our in-house magazine for Macmillan staff.

Please indicate below whether you are willing for us to use your story in media other than the Exchange newsletter:

I am happy for my story/news/event report to be used in media other than the Exchange newsletter (please tick)
I only give my permission for this story/news/event report to be published in the Exchange newsletter (please tick)

I understand and accept the purposes for which Macmillan may use my story. If you are under 16 years of age, your parent or legal guardian must sign this form on your behalf.
